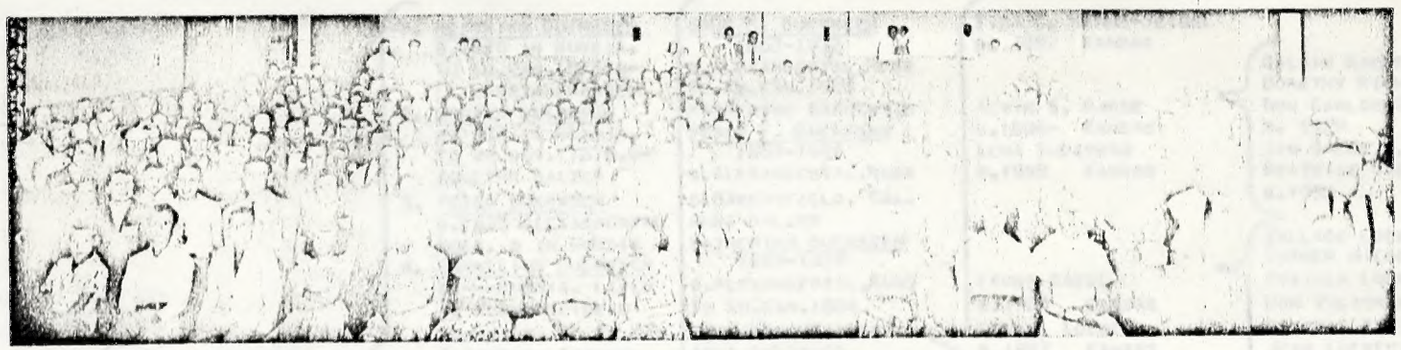
GENEALOGY OF JOHANN DUERKSEN 1750 - 1840



Duerksen Family Reunion, June 14, 1953. Approximately 400 from 10 States. Shafter California. U. S. A.

PREFACE

I have compiled this pamphlet in request from many who attended the Duerksen reunion in Shafter, California, June 14, 1953. I am grateful to all who have contributed information, but in spite of precaution realize that complete accuracy may not have been entirely achieved.

The following pages represent the Genealogy of Johann Duerksen who lived approximately 1750 to 1840 in Prussia and his descendents from his first, second, and third marriage. The fourth page is the Genealogy of Johann Duerksen known as Oel-Ohm-Jihaun, who also is mentioned on page one as the first child of the first marriage of Johann Duerksen of 1750.

This Genealogy is based on a document written by Professor John Funk Duerksen, dated December 29, 1928, and is at present in the keeping of Dr. Menno S. Gaede, Reedley, California. This Professor John Funk Duerksen, (1863 - 1932) is mentioned on page 40 of Peter M. Friesen's book, Alt-Evangelische Mennonitische Bruederschaft in Ruzland. 1790 - 1910. Halbstadt, Taurien, Verlagsgesellschaft "Raduga". 1911.

Other books consulted:

1. MENNONITISCHE MAERTYRER. 1949. Aron A. Toews. Printed in Canada by the Christian Press, Ltd., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.
2. DIE MOLOTSCHNAER ANSIEDLUNG. 1951. H. F. Goerz. Echo-Verlag, Steinbach, Manitoba, Canada.
3. DIE TEREKER ANSIEDLUNG. 1945. Cornelius P. Toews. Echo-Verlag, Steinbach, Manitoba, Canada.
4. SAGRADOWSKA. 1948. Gerhard Lohrenz. Echo-Verlag, Rosthern, Sask. Canada.
5. ORENBURG AM URAL. 1951. Peter P. Dyck. Columbia Press, Yarrow, British Columbia, Canada. Christian Book Store, Clearbrook, British Columbia, Canada.

I trust that the reading of this pamphlet may lead not only to a greater interest in our human heritage, but much more to a fuller appreciation of our divine inheritance, which we have in Christ Jesus.

August 12, 1953 .
